Circumcise Me

A new comedy on the cutting edge

Saturday, October 16, 2010
8:30 PM • Congregation Shaarey Zedek

Circumcise Me tells the true story of Yisrael Campbell, your average Irish, Italian, Catholic kid from Philly, who became a sober alcoholic, recovering drug addict, husband, father, reform, conservative, unorthodox, orthodox, Jewish comic actor. In his New York theatrical debut, Yisrael (born Christopher) takes the audience on an extraordinary spiritual, creative, and hysterically funny journey including, ouch, three circumcisions along the way.

$36 per person • dessert and wine reception included
